

If you are considering COMMANDoptimize or already a current user, this one-day training class focuses on the roles and responsibilities of order takers, schedulers and shippers operating in an Optimized environment. This class will include an introduction to COMMANDoptimize, Optimize techniques and best practices in setting up orders and managing the Optimized plan daily.

Introduction to COMMANDoptimize

- What is it?
- How does it work?
- How will it impact my daily role?

COMMANDoptimize Direct Order Entry

- A walk through of the Order Entry process defining each field and associating those definitions to real world scenarios.

Configuring COMMANDtrack with COMMANDoptimize

- Demonstration of the optimal format for COMMANDtrack for customers with COMMANDoptimize, including improved layout and enhanced features.

COMMANDoptimize Gantt Chart

- No matter your role in Central Dispatch, COMMANDoptimize Gantt Charts can be a useful tool during many decision-making moments. Learn how this tool can assist you in daily scenarios including:
 - when to schedule a same day order
 - reviewing the plan for a large pour
 - confirming what the schedule looks like for next day
 - and other scenarios

COMMANDoptimize OCMI Dashboard

- A review of features included in this handy dashboard that will provide key data points to keep you in the loop on how your Optimizer is running. These features include:
 - A web version of the Gantt Chart
 - The Optimization Scoreboard
 - Real Time Traffic Updates
 - Optimizer Status
 - OPT Health Check

Hand Out Review

- Review of key documents and how you can use them going forward.